

Karine de Souza Silva is Jean Monnet Chair holder since 2007. She is a Professor of International Law and International Relations at the Federal University of Santa Catarina, in Brazil. She has a Productivity research fellowship / PQ CNPq (Brazil's National Council for Scientific and Technological Development). Coordinator of the Sérgio Vieira de Mello Chair of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, UNHCR. She coordinates the "Eirenè: Centre for Research on Decolonial and Post-colonial Studies applied to International Relations and International Law" and the extension project "Sérgio Vieira de Mello Chair on Migrations and Refuges". She holds a Ph.D. in European Union Law at Universidade Federal de Santa Catarina (UFSC). She was Visiting scholar at the Institute for International Policy of the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven and at the Université Libre de Bruxelles. She holds a Master in the field of International Law (UFSC). She is visiting professor at Universidade Técnica de Mozambique, at the Universidad de Valladolid, University of Minho, Université Libre de Bruxelles etc.; She is an Ad hoc Consultant for the Education Ministry of Brazil; for the National Council of Scientific and Technological Development; for the European Union - Civilian observer for United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti (MINUSTAH). Her main areas of expertise are: Regional Integration; Post-colonial and Decolonial epistemologies applied to International Relations and International Law; Intersectionality of race and gender; Africa and International Relations; African Diaspora, migrations and refuges; United Nations peacekeeping operations in Haiti.