

Solidarity in EU Law

Dipartimento di Giurisprudenza

Dear SoEULaw followers,

the activities of the second year of Jean Monnet Module “Solidarity in EU Law” are going on continuously!

On Monday 29 and Tuesday 30 March 2021, three hours of Professor Estelle Brosset’s Jean Monnet course “Environment Protection and Solidarity in EU Law” took place remotely. During the lectures, Prof. Estelle Brosset (Professor of Public Law at Aix-Marseille University and Key Staff Member of our Jean Monnet Module) aimed at deepening the understanding of how solidarity is implemented in EU Environmental Law. It was questioned what are the solidarity duties that potentially derive from art. 37 of the Charter of Fundamental Rights, which states: “A high level of environmental protection and the improvement of the quality of the environment must be integrated into the policies of the Union and ensured in accordance with the principle of sustainable development”. The lectures also dealt with concrete examples of solidarity within existing European Union Environmental and Natural Resources Law and Policy, and with the relevant case law.

We are also glad to announce that the schedule of our Teaching Activities for the months of April and May 2021 is full of lectures. For example, Prof. Estelle Brosset will lecture again, for a total of three hours, in the framework of Jean Monnet course “Environment Protection and Solidarity in EU Law”. Prof. Tarin Cristino Frota Mont’Alverne (Professor of International Private Law, National Migration Policy, Law of the Sea, International Environmental Protection and Integration Law at the Faculty of Law of the Federal University of Ceará, Brazil) will lecture, for a total of six hours, in the framework of Jean Monnet course “Solidarity and Migrations in Latin America: the Case of Brazil”. Prof. Francisco-Pascual Vives (Professor of International Law and International Relations at the University of Alcalà, Spain, and Key Staff Member of our Jean Monnet Module) will lecture, for a total of six hours, in the framework of Jean Monnet course “Solidarity in European Union External Action (Investment Agreements)”. Dr. Matteo Del Chicca (Lecturer of EU Law at the University of Pisa and Key Staff Member of our Jean Monnet Module) will lecture, for a total of six hours, in the framework of Jean Monnet course “Terrorism and Solidarity in EU Law”. And Prof. Teresa Russo (Professor of EU Law and EU Migration Law at the University of Salerno and Key Staff Member of our Jean Monnet Module) will lecture, for a total of six hours, in the framework of Jean Monnet course “Natural or Man-made Disaster and Solidarity in EU law”.

The schedule of the lectures is constantly updated and it can be found, together with the instructions on how to join the virtual classrooms, on our website at the following link:
